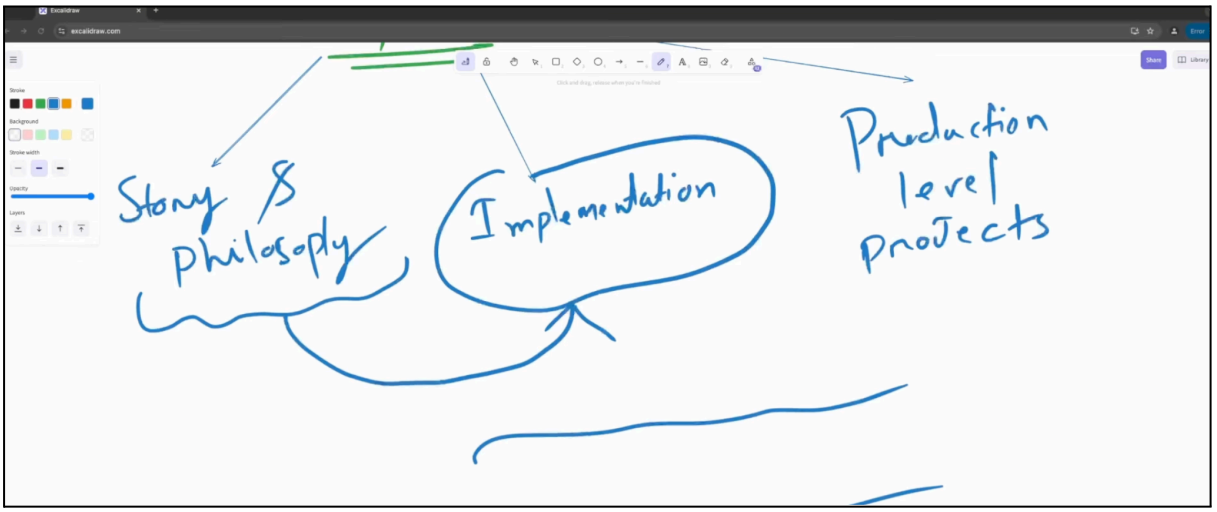
2. Walk the path of a true backend engineer

- You will understand the story, philosophy, inner workings of backend, collaborations of diff systems and their working

- Once the foundations are cleared, how systems operate is understood we move onto implementation [this is where you select your language- golang/ node.js/ python]


- Industry std Production level projects